

That's How You Do It: Decorating The Perfect Boys' Room

In a boys' room, you quickly think of tough, green, blue and cars. But what makes a nursery a real boys room? For each color you choose? Are you going for a specific theme? Do you choose furniture other than a girls' room? And how can a boys' room for the little ones be a little sweet and cute? In this Ideabook, I share some nice ideas and examples to help you on your way to creating a nice bedroom for boys. So I'm going to talk about the color palette, the perfect bed, and the nicest accessories!

Take a look at this sturdy Ideabook and be inspired!

Choose A Timeless Theme

Determining a theme in advance can help you in choosing the further design of the boys' room. Choose a timeless theme, this prevents you from having to change the entire room every year. Good options? Choose a color or style theme instead of a specific topic that inspires the room. The combination of blue/green and white is always very good, and this also applies to black, white and gray. When you choose such a theme, you can finish it off with accessories. Maybe your son is crazy about football, superheroes, dinos or cars? Then, of course, you will return to the textile, the toys, and the decoration. Create An Educational Space To Play

It may not be surprising that sounds, materials, and colors play a major role in the education of children. Did you know that the toy corner is a perfect way to learn (playfully)? In addition, children spend a lot of time in their bedroom and for the first time come into contact with new smells, colors, and sounds. But how do you design an educational room then exactly?

Think about the needs of your child and then decide what to purchase. Do not choose too big toy boxes, accessibility is important! Provide nice books, puzzles, and toys made from different materials. You can also think of hanging up educational but sturdy posters or an inspiring wallpaper.

Choose A Nice Bed

What kind of bed do you choose a boys room? You can actually go in all directions, from a white designer bed or a variant of scaffold wood to a metal frame or a loft bed. Actually, a bed for a boys 'or girls' room does not have to differ so much from each other. With the right accessories, decorations and toys, you ensure that it becomes a typically tough bed for boys. Very handy, because in this way you can also reuse the bed in the future! On the picture above you see for example a nice covered bed that is reminiscent of spending the night in a sturdy tent! Which boy does not like adventure and camping? The right duvet cover can also provide a sturdy look in a children's bedroom.

Create A Study Place

Especially when your son is a bit older, a place to study can be a requirement. If your son is a little younger then you can also go for a smaller table or small desk where he can read, play or tinker. A workplace can be created in different ways. For example, a desk with space for more people is always useful, especially if your son often comes home with friends. Choose a long desk with two chairs.

Do you have to deal with a small bedroom and does not this fit? Then think about investing in multifunctional furniture. Think, for example, of a loft bed with a desk underneath. Functional and space-saving! In addition, always ensure sufficient storage space by hanging wall shelves or placing drawer or bookcases.

Typical Accessories and Decoration for Boys

When the foundation is laid, you can finish the room completely by choosing the right accessories and decoration. But how do you choose that? The interests of your son can be a huge help here. For example, is he interested in football or planets? This can be brought back in bean bags, lamps and/or pillows. Also, model trains and cars generally do very well as decoration and toys! Think carefully about the interests of your son, in this way you make the bedroom really personal!

With this, I end this Ideabook full of ideas and inspiration for decorating the toughest and fun boys' room. I hope that you have done enough inspiration to enjoy yourself at home yourself!
